

Our Friday Speaker

July 19, 2024 - 10:30 a.m. At

Iroquois Club or via Zoom

Richard Homberg President and CEO Detroit PBS

“What is New and Happening at Detroit PBS?”

A graduate of Temple University, Rich Homberg came to Detroit in 1996 to run WWJ and was the lead manager on the development of 97.1/The Ticket.

In 2008, he moved on to Detroit PBS to serve as President and CEO. Since his arrival, Homberg has helped lead in the development of the Michigan Learning Channel, the national PBS Books platform and a number of strong, local programs. In April, Detroit PBS announced plans for a new headquarters in the heart of Detroit.

Homberg is a huge supporter of Detroit and well-known for his favorite phrase, always positioning Detroit as “TMICIA,” The Most Important City in America.

Meeting at the Iroquois Club, 43248 Woodward Avenue, Bloomfield Township

North of Square Lake Road. Lunch reservation required by previous Monday.
